RUSSIAN HOLD ALL GROUND WON IN RECENT DRIVE

Petrograd, Sept. 13, via London. The Russians are holding the ground won in the recent fighting in the Caucasus, and are continuing their attacks by the Teutonic forces, according to a war report which says:

"The region of Riga and on the River Dnieper, the activity of the enemy's air fleet increased considerably."

"In the wooded Carpathian region, however, the Russians made a sharp attack on Chirna-Chernish the enemy launching surprise attacks on the heights captured by them."

"In the battle on the evening of Sept. 12, the Russians were heavily bombarded enemy trawlers in the Irtysh River. Some of them were compelled to run ashore."

"Caucasus front: The situation is unchanged."

Musical In Aid Of St. John Ambulance

The musical given at the gallop yesterday evening was really one of those delights by the wayside which one would like to see more often. The performers are amateur. As an entertainment its standard was the highest. The program was well-chosen, nothing to help to buck up the boys in the audience. The money raised went to the St. John Ambulance Association who have made it their peculiar business to help the poor."

Helen Montague played the wedding march, Mrs. Wilson Smiley sang "I'm a Little Teapot," and Mrs. Lovell sang "I'm a Little Flower."

The bride was very charming in a long white gown, with a lace hem enhanced with delicate rose ornaments. A large blue velvet sash, composed of georgette crepe with a gold fringe, was tied around her toilette. She wore the gift of the bride, a silver bracelet, and carried a silver bouquet of birches.

The bride's bridesmaids were becoming young girls, dressed in bodices of black velvet relieved with gold embroidery.

The maid of honour carried pink Carnation roses.

With the careful choice of selections from repertoires, versatile as rich in variety as the performers, the tribute was a success.

"A Love Story" and "The Man Who Would Be King" were the most popular numbers, and the audience enjoyed the musical pleasure.

With the arrival of the intermission, the audience was given a rest of which with the interpretation of Durak's "Home Sweet Home" always attracts the greatest interest.

Madame Evans Duggan's vocal solo, "I'm a Little Flower," and "Sleep My Love, Sleep" (Sullivan), and "My Treasure" (Trevallyn), were also received with enthusiasm.

With all the precision at his command, Mr. John Knott, making a brilliant appearance, sang "I'm a Little Flower" and "I'm a Little Flower."

Naturally the tea room was a popular rendezvous for the ladies, and the tea room was a picture of gaiety, with many houseswives having fun.

Murphy's Three-year-old Entry Captures Both Heats With Ease

EYRACUSE, N.Y.—Sept. 13.—Expressive, three-year-old entry by Murphy, won the $4,000 American Horse Breeder's Futurity, the tenth and final race of the year, with impressive trotting. The Murphy entry led the field from the start and easily won the first heat, crossed the line with plenty to spare. Walter Clegg, driver in the Syracuse stake for 217 paces, winning the straight heats, was the winner of the second. The 216-trot was won by Howe Cooper, who, after a fast start, easily walked away with the 214-paces, winning each of the three heats.

JIMMY GARDINER IS ROBBED NEAR MONTREAL HOME

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 12.—Jimmy Gardiner, the famous jockey and manager of the Canadian team two seasons back, was assailed near his home here yesterday morning and robbed. A sum of money was taken, but Gardiner was unconscious, but Gardiner was much more seriously injured than his ring which was wrenching off his finger. The ring was a valuable memento of the Men of Kent. Each member of the famous horse racing team, from the Cup from Kenora Thistles was present, and the ring was highly prized by all the old-time players. Gardiner would give the names of the opponents of the thieves.

The former athlete believes he was struck with a sandbag, but remembers nothing of the attack, except on the side of the head. His face is badly swollen as a result.

Third race, about 5 furlongs—Little Springfield, 1st; Dufferin, 2nd; Sir Raymond, 3rd; Time: 1:25-2.

Fourth race, about 5 furlongs—The Kitchen, won; Celebrity, 2nd; Safe Haven, 3rd; Time: 1:25-2.

Fifth race, 6 1/2 furlongs—Energetic, won; Sorrelite, 2nd; Muscat, 3rd; Time: 1:25-2.

Sixth race, 6 1/2 furlongs—Ottis Tree, won; Aster, 2nd; Cutydale, 3rd; Time: 1:25-2.

Two Dollar Tickets on This One Paid $1,703.70.

You can talk of their Yallahs, Old Pops, Sheepshanks,

Ophelia Whis, and other birds that have converted a decent spot into a healthy bank roll, but Blue Bonnets started a four-footed quadruped of the genus Equus in the first race a week ago that would have made a 2-dollar bill look like $1,703.70—if the eight horses in front of her had dropped dead. Our Mabelle was the first to make the jump, a six-year-old, born in Ontario, and owned by W. T. Tamm.

She started it a little better than $50 to 1, and even at that price she wasn't last, Auster and Fiddler finishing back of her. Amphion won the race, and was only seventeen lengths in front of Our Mabelle which finished eighth. The owners probably had a couple of aces on her in the event of the rest of the field being struck by lightning.

BIG STICK BATTLE IN MAJOR LEAGUES

Gobb Gains on Speaker—Hal Chase Still Holding in the National

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—With his rival winning the Ty Cobb trophy, the two points on Ty Cobb's list in the race for American League batting honors during the past season were held by Cobb and Cleveland. Cobb got four hits, while Speaker got only one at bat, while Speaker got only one in four times up, with the result that Cobb has a .365 average, while Speaker led a point. Joe Jackson lost two points, and the two others were held at .356 each.

WELSH FIGHT WITH WHITE FAKED?

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Ten men were arrested here yesterday at the meeting of Freddie Welsh and Harry Price, and others who had passed on to the retired list and had hoped to be forgotten, in San Francisco, hinting darkly of a plot to kidnap the Englishman and hold him for a ransom.

The British had a noticeable effect on the telegram received which was:

"One big stick battle on Welsh."

Within half an hour after the telegram began arriving, the betting in the grandstand was 2 to 1 and 2 to 1, with Welsh favorite.

The telegrams in themselves also added to the excitement, and in a story in a news item that came from Colorado Springs, the fight was to be a "white" and that the Englishman would be held for a ransom of $100,000 as a guarantee he would not be harmed.

They started calling me 'The Indian,'" said Harry Price, who was with Welsh when he was kidnapped.

"I think baseball is poor business," said Mr. Wheat of Missouri.

"There, we said it for you, Zach."

"Zach dresses up a City Chippie—but isn't bushy?"

"It's all right for the stars—but for the stars—"

"Unless a fellow is a star he ought to quit. It takes the best years of a person to become a star."

"I am ready to quit now. I don't get back to my farm in Mississippi, anyway. I have a 240-acre farm there, and the people there are friendly."

"I think baseball is poor business," said Mr. Wheat of Missouri.

The Canadian Hockey Association has announced that they will open their 1916-17 season, when the question of operating the franchises in the National Hockey League is still to be discussed. President Haze has indicated that he will not be present at the opening game, and that he will be compelled to conduct the puckshaws before coming to any decision.
